

A link to our student artwork on the worldwide web art gallery.
www.artsonia.com

The National Gallery of Art kids zone.
<http://www.nga.gov/kids/zone/zone.htm>

Lessons on drawing Garfield cartoons.
http://www.professorgarfield.org/pgf_ArtBot.html

Explore the visual arts elements and principles of design.
<http://www.artsconnected.org/toolkit/explore.cfm>

This is an online drawing and design gallery.
<http://www.picassohead.com/>

A website with fun activities from the Museum of Web Art.
http://www.mowa.org/kids/kids_enter.html

A site to learn about Modern Art.
<http://www.moma.org/interactives/destination/>

This site is from the Smart Museum of Art, University of Chicago; for students ages 7-12 to discover ways to look at, think about, and respond creatively to art.
<http://smartmuseum.uchicago.edu/smartkids/index.html>

A site to an online etch-a-sketch.
<http://www.ohioart.com/etch/>

This is a site about art history.
<http://www.eduweb.com/pintura/>

You can create an online Mondrian.
<http://www.stephen.com/mondrimat/index3.html?>

Online art history adventures on this website.
<http://www.eduweb.com/insideart/>

You can play an art game at Getty games.
<http://www.getty.edu/gettygames/>

Learn about animals and art through this online adventure.
http://www.moma.org/interactives/artsafari/safari_menu.html

These are free online drawing lessons by Mark Kistler.
<http://www.draw3d.com/OnlineVideo.html>