Spelling: Lesson 25-Two activities due Fri.

Grammar/Writing: We are learning about adverbs, and our test will be this Friday. We are starting our 2nd expository essay about the "Three Types of Rocks".

Math: We have been telling time to the nearest minute, and this week are learning how to calculate elapsed time using clocks, T-charts, and number lines. Quiz on Thurs.

Science: We had a super time "eating the layers of soil" last Friday. For the next two weeks, we will be learning about different landforms. "Passport Projects" went home today, and they will be due by next Thurs. on March 21st. Please sign & return the rubric tomorrow, then I will send it back.

Social Studies: Lesson 2-Famous soldier and battles in South Carolina. Test is tomorrow. Then, we will finish the chapter before Spring Break and start learning about the Civil War when we return.
